CLASS HISTORY

Twelve years ago the Senior Class of "49" or some of it walked through the doors of Cleveland School for the first time, and optimistically demanded an education. We were ready to strive to seek, to find and not to yield. Of the seventy who entered the first grade in 1937, only three, James McDowell, James Franklin London, and Monte Harris Hamilton have completed their entire twelve years at Cleveland High School. The other seniors have joined this Trio either in the Grades or in High School.

We started our High School career with an enrollment of twenty-seven eager Freshmen, brimming with that naive self-assurance that only freshmen possess. We were greatly assisted by Mr. Hoskins, our class advisor.

With Mr. W.M. Wooten as class advisor, the Sophomore year found us better acquainted with high school rules and regulations and hard down to work. Some of the group placed high on the football and basketball teams.

Our Junior year was a very successful one, with James Franklin London as president and Miss. E.A. Enloe advisor, we gave the Seniors an elaborate Prom.

This, our last year in high school has proved to be our most important. This is the year that we have looked forward to and dreamed about. Mr. R. L. Garrett took over the wheel as Senior advisor, and Alphonso Young was selected class president. We had five boys on the basketball team, the whole class in the dramatic club, and all the girls held positions in the glee club. The class won the annual fall contest by turning over to the school $110. Selma Baker was elected May Queen. Alphonso Herman Young with a total of 274 points and Monte Harris Hamilton with 260 were the high scorers on the basketball team.

We will always be grateful to our parents for providing us with the opportunity to receive a high school education, and to our teachers for their patience and consideration shown throughout the years we were with them. Our faith in our homes and our school is the basis of the confidence with which we face the future. Never shall we forget the tingling joyousness of this conclusion of our happy schooldays at Cleveland. A time to keep. That is what tonight is. To keep the memory of it forever and ever. And if better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof, what a glorious future awaits us in the life that is so brightly commencing tonight.

Monte Harris Hamilton

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Cleveland High School of Shelby, of the County of Cleveland and State of North Carolina about to pass out of this sphere of education in full possession of a crammed mind, well trained memory and almost superhuman understanding do make this our last will and testament.

We bequeath to the dear faculty, who have been our instructors in all the wisdom of the ages, a sweet and unbroken succession of restful nights and peaceful dreams. It has been a hard strain on them, but they have all done their duty and verily, now shall they have their well earned reward. To Cleveland High School as a whole we leave our good discipline and behavior. To Tommy Elmore, McKinley Gaines leaves his good disposition and his ability to give the fair sex. To Frank Borders, Monte Hamilton leaves his position as center on the basketball team, and to Eujames Bennet his ability to blow the trumpet. To Rufus Webb, James Franklin London leaves his ability to beat the bass drum with the hope that he will use it well. To Pearl Crosby, Arlyss Logan leaves her scholastic ability, and to Edna Webber her cuteness and ability to sing in the Glee Club. To Louise Watson, Selma Baker leaves her student teacher ability and her hair styles. To Glenn Keaton, James Edward McDowell leaves his position as best dressed boy in school and his cooperativeness. To Matthew Norwood, James Moore leaves his ability to write and speak French. To Donnie Bell Word, Eleanor Thompson leaves her neatness. To Sadie Phillips, Imogene Wilson leaves her sense of humor. To Matthew Burris, Alphonso Young leaves his athletic ability, and to Talmadge Cline his ability to operate the memeograph and movie machines.

Beside these enforced gifts we, leave not of necessity, but of our own free will, our blessing tender memories, for our pleasant associations together and our forgiveness for anything that we may not have exactly appreciated in the demonstrations of the past and a pledge of friendship from henceforth and forever. All of the rest and residue of our property whatsoever and wheresoever of what nature, kind, and quality soever it may be and not herein disposed of we bequeath to our principal for his use and benefit absolutely, and to be disposed of for the good of the coming classes.

In witness where of, we the Class of 1949, the Testators have to this our will written on this sheet and set our hands and seal this fourteenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and forty nine.

CLASS SONG

We've come a long way together
 Since we met at dear old Cleveland Hi
 We've weathered all kind of weather
 But tonight we can rest for awhile.

Why care if our way seems harder
 We still have love to keep our hearts aglow
 We've come a long way together
 and we still have a long way to go.
